Alternative solutions for this page

An alternative solution for this home page is to include all of the company's logos. This will make it easier for people to navigate to their favourite company. An issue that could be encountered is that the page will take longer to load. I have researched other commercial mobile phone sites (such as Carphone Warehouse) and they only include a few of their 'Top Picks', with the other phones accessed by a drop down menu. I will use this alternative solution only after a test and after user feedback.

Alternative solutions for this page
Apple phones are extremely popular. Everyone has heard of the iPhone, and may want one even though they might not know which one to get. Answers will be in the forum, somewhere, but an alternative solution for this page could be a splash page or similar extra page/pop up to show people the history of the iPhone. This is to give some extra information that will show the differences in the models, particularly the more recent ones (X, 11, 12, 13 and 14).

Alternative solutions for this page
An alternative solution for this page is that I could put the forum on its own separate page. This will make it easier to navigate for users who need to get to the forum quickly. It will also help with decluttering the Contact Us page. At the moment, there is quite a lot of information on this page. I haven't considered this idea completely, because my total number of pages would go over 8.
